AvevA Dese is an Ethiopian-Israeli singer, songwriter, and storyteller whose music bridges cultures, traditions, and generations.

Born to Ethiopian Jewish immigrants and raised in Israel, AvevA blends soulful contemporary pop with Ethiopian musical heritage, creating concerts and interactive programs that explore identity, culture, and storytelling through music.

AvevA has performed internationally on stages including The Kennedy Center, Skirball Cultural Center, the Jerusalem Sacred Music Festival, Overton Park Shell, and the TEDx stage.

CONCERT EXPERIENCE

- Full Band Concert

A dynamic performance with AvevA and her full band, delivering a rich, rhythmic sound and an energetic stage presence suited for large audiences and festive occasions.

- Acoustic Trio

A balanced and expressive format that highlights AvevA's voice and songwriting while maintaining a vibrant musical groove.

- Acoustic Duo

A stripped-down performance focusing on vocals, acoustic textures, and the stories behind the songs, creating a close and intimate atmosphere.

EDUCATIONAL & CULTURAL PROGRAMS

- The Journey of Ethiopian Jews – Story, Identity, and Music

Through music and storytelling, AvevA shares her journey alongside the experiences of the Ethiopian Jewish community, offering audiences a deeper understanding of its history, traditions, and cultural heritage.

- Music as Cultural Storytelling

AvevA invites audiences into her songwriting process, sharing how personal experiences, cultural heritage, and life between cultures shape the stories behind her music.

- Bridging Cultures Through Music

AvevA explores how music can bring together influences, traditions, and perspectives from different cultures, sharing how these encounters shape her artistic voice and connect communities through sound.
